Prairie Glen Estates Selected to Host the 2015 Parade of Homes

The Building Industry Association (BIA) of Clark County has selected Prairie Glen Estates in Hockinson as the site for the 2015 NW Natural Parade of Homes. The show will take place July 10 – July 26.

This stunning show site will feature up to seven homes on level 1+ acre lots. Prairie Glen Estates is a gated, cul-de-sac community surrounded by 35 acres of green space that will remain dedicated to the HOA. The site offers private, country living in the desirable Hockinson School District with easy access to highways 500 and 503.

“We are so pleased to host a country estates version of the NW Natural Parade of Homes” shared Jack Harroun, Vice President of the BIA and 2014 Parade of Homes Chairman. “Attendees come to this event to dream, get ideas and be wowed. We are sure that Prairie Glen Estates will give our guests this experience and more!”

Builders are in the process of reserving lots at this time. An official groundbreaking ceremony will be scheduled for January. Any builder interested in participating should contact BIA Events Coordinator Danielle Kilian (360.694.0933).
