BIA Honors New Homes Tour Award Recipients

Vancouver, Wash – The Building Industry Association of Clark County (BIA) honored the New Homes Tour award recipients at the BIA Dinner Meeting last Thursday.

The New Homes Tour presented by Fairway Independent Mortgage includes the popular preview event, Chef, Hop & Vine presented by NW Natural. Chef, Hop & Vine pairs area chefs with local breweries and wineries at five homes on the tour. The New Homes Tour was held during the first two weekends of June and featured 25 homes by 14 BIA builders. Winners of the awards were voted on by attendees of the two events.

Chef, Hop & Vine Honorees:

Best Pairing: Camas Meadows and Grains of Wrath

Best Presentation: Sixth Avenue Bistro

Best Wine: Heathen Estate Vineyard

Best Brew: Grains of Wrath

Best Overall: Sixth Avenue Bistro and Heathen Brewing

Most Creative Menu: Camas Meadows

New Homes Tour Honorees:

Best Kitchen: "The Dalton" by Affinity Homes

Most Livable Floor Plan: "The Dalton" by Affinity Homes

Best of Show: "The Dalton" by Affinity Homes

A portion of the ticket proceeds from Chef, Hop & Vine were donated to the Evergreen Habitat for Humanity. Andi Costello, Co-Chair of the Women Build Committee, and Angela Zagorsky, Parr Lumber, accepted a check for $2,520 on behalf of the charity last week. Reflecting on the donation, Andi Costello stated, "Women Build is honored to partner with the BIA to empower Habitat homeowners as pillars of strength and stability for their families and our community."
